

5 IRS ERC Warning Signs

IRS shares 5 warning signs that Employee Retention claims may be incorrect. As stated in IR-2024-78, The IRS is currently in the process of reviewing $3 billion in claims and plans to ramp up the sending of disallowance letters and audit notices in the coming months.

If you claimed ERC, there are 5 signs of a faulty claim you need to be aware of:

1 Business didn't pay wages or didn't exist

4 Wrong or no calculations

2 No correlation to government mandates

5 Claiming ERC for too much of a tax period

3 Too many employees

If you have doubts about your ERC claim, or are concerned about a potential audit, the time to act is now. alliantNational is ready to help defend your business and claim, ensuring that all sides reach an amicable solution.
